

Celtic True Lovers Knot Pillow or Wall-Hanging with Beth Ann Williams - NEW

This popular block pattern from Beth Ann's book Celtic Quilts: A New Look for Ancient Designs (required text) is based on the ancient True Lovers Knot, the continuous line forming the design symbolic of the eternal nature of true love. Through a mix of live instruction and Q&A, up-close photography, and video clips showing the techniques in action, you'll learn to create Celtic knotwork from bias strips and "invisibly" machine appliqué-and-quilt your block in one step. Turn your finished block into a beautiful decorator pillow or small wall-hanging. Intermediate, $45

Thurs., 10/15, 22 & 29; 1:30 - 4 PM

Please call the Wyoming, MI Lakeshore Sewing store at 616-531-5561 to register for this online Zoom class.

How Zoom classes will work:

- You do not need to have a Zoom account to participate in a Zoom class.
- You can register and pay for Zoom classes through the stores (by phone or in person), just like an in-person class.
- Supply lists will be available in-store and online
- You must supply a current email address when you sign up so that instructors will be able to send out invitations to join the class, as well as any class handouts.
- Teachers will email the invitation links to join the class at least 24 hours in advance. There will be no class refunds with less than 48 hours notice.
- If you are new to Zoom, please check into the class 10-15 minutes ahead of time and follow the prompts to set up your audio and video.

Supply List:

Sewing machine in good working order, cleaned thoroughly

Open-toe applique foot and/or walking foot; blind-hem foot helpful, but optional

Size 70 Schmetz Microtex Sharp needles. Size 75 Schmetz Quilting needles.

60 wt. thread for the bobbin that blends with/matches the bias tube fabric

.004 monofilament thread for machine appliqué (MonoPoly from Superior Threads is recommended)

(smoke if using very dark fabric for the bias tubes, clear if using medium valued fabric)

neutral thread for top and bobbin (for sewing border, etc.)

Bias press bars

Iron and pressing pad - a mini-iron is especially helpful.

Roxann's Glue-Baste-It (preferred) or 1 roll 1/4" wide Steam-A-Seam2 (stored in a plastic bag).

Erasable marking pen or pencil for tracing the design (a mechanical pencil works great for me)

Safety pins (for pin-basting the quilt sandwich if not using fusible batting)

Seam ripper, scissors, pins, etc.

Rotary ruler, at least 24" long; rotary cutter and large cutting mat

Optional, but recommended: Light box for tracing design

Optional, but strongly recommended for pillow option: Wonder Clips

Required text - Celtic Quilts: A New Look for Ancient Designs book by Beth Ann Williams (unfortunately, no longer available through Lakeshore Sewing; best price used or new usually through Amazon.com, BarnesandNoble.com, etc.; also available as an e-book directly from Martingale & Co.)

PLEASE SEE NEXT PAGE FOR FABRIC REQUIREMENTS

**for best results, please wash all fabric; don't use fabric softener!

Fusible products often do not adhere properly to unwashed fabric.

1 fat quarter light fabric for background

1 fat quarter medium or dark print fabric for the bias tubes (tone-on-tone or subtle prints usually work best)

1 fat quarter for (optional) inner "flap" border

1 fat quarter fabric for outer border

18" x 18" piece of low-loft batting, preferably cotton or a cotton blend (Hobbs Heirloom 80/20 fusible is great!)

5/8 yd. fabric for backing and (optional) sleeve (for a wall-hanging)

1/4 yd. fabric (NOT a fat quarter) for binding (for a wall-hanging)

–OR–

1/2 yd. fabric for envelope-style pillow back (for a pillow)

1/2 yd. Pellon 987F fusible fleece OR batting (for a pillow)

16" pillow form (for a pillow)

And don't worry--this is much easier than it looks!
